London Auto Expo Highlights Old and New

The 4th annual London Auto Expo returns to the Western Fairgrounds, March 26-28. It's the ultimate show for car enthusiasts with over 100,000 square feet of classics, custom machines, brand new dream cars and impressive restorations. If that isn't enough, check out race cars, military vehicles and automobiles from all across the province. This event won't disappoint!

Local, well-known collector Steve Plunkett returns with two of his rare beauties – a 1953 Cadillac El Dorado Convertible and a 1976 Cadillac Mirage – one of only 104 ever produced!

After strolling down memory lane get back to the future with a tour of the New Car Showroom, in the Canada Building, featuring over 50 of the latest new car models from local dealerships.

Wait there's even more!

The West Annex will showcase great entertainment with Karaoke Friday and feature band, RADIO on Saturday, plus, the Old Farts Garage pin striping exhibition. Check out the Link for great tuner ideas and the Progress Building is home to hot rods, classics and reconditioned models, with many local car clubs participating in the event.

In the middle of all the polish and preening will be the Automobile Journalists Association of Canada's (AJAC) award winners showcase for 2010. Find out which new car and truck are voted AJAC's Best for 2010!

Take advantage of the special savings exclusively offered at the London Auto Expo, save $3.00 off admission when you buy your ticket online at www.westernfair.com!
