For Immediate Release: August 30, 2010

Cultural community embraces the Fair

The annual Western Fair is just 11-days away and a new cultural showcase -Panorama Pavilion- is packed and ready to engage fairgoers with ten-days of cultural discovery, thanks to tremendous support from local ethic groups.

Check out these Panorama Pavilion experiences at the 2010 Western Fair:

Afrofesta Day September 10

Incredible India Day September 11

Mexican Fiesta September 12

Art for Aids* September 13 – 15

*With special showcases daily from the Chinese and German communities.

Oneida Day September 16

Muslim Heritage Day Festival September 17

Latin American Day* September 18

*Sounds of soca, salsa and merengue will heat-up the grandstand on Latin American Day with Latin Grammy Winner, Joe Arroyo taking the stage.

Festa Italiana September 19

The PANORAMA PAVILION experience will enhance the numerous attractions and entertainment already in place for the 135th Western Fair and add several new features that will educate attendees. Many wonderful cultural experiences await this year's fairgoer and Western Fair is proud to embrace the increasing cultural diversity of the city of London.

For more information:
Heather Blackwell
(519) 438-7203 EX 261
hblackwell@westernfair.com